Construction of a new maximum security Federal prison on the Crab Orchard Wildlife Refuge, Rural Route 2, Carterville, Illinois, is contemplated during the next 30-90 days. According to local newspapers, bids have been received for the general contract which totals nearly $8,000,000. Blount Brothers Construction Company of Alabama has reportedly submitted the low bid somewhat over $7,000,000 for the general contract. According to newspaper accounts, it is estimated that nearly $1,000,000 has already been spent in clearing, filling, and grading of the 600-acre prison tract on the Crab Orchard Wildlife Refuge.

 RE: FRANK LEONARD WORTMAN, aka
 AR

Re Bureau telephone call January 17, 1961, from Supervisor [redacted] concerning the possibility of installing two Misur installations in the Springfield Division. Reference is also made to prior correspondence under the above caption reflecting that the Springfield Division has already given considerable consideration to Misur installation in the home of WORTMAN. A review of the entire top hoodlum situation in the Springfield Division reflects that WORTMAN and his group are the only hoodlums of sufficient prominence to warrant consideration of Misur treatment.

I have carefully reviewed this entire situation and have personally examined all of the pertinent physical establishments operated by the WORTMAN group. From the information known to the Springfield Division from all sources, WORTMAN is currently operating in the present manner. At this time his entire operations are conducted from his residence which is called the "Moat". As previously pointed out to the Bureau, the name selected by WORTMAN for his residence is particularly suitable. This is not a home in the usual sense. This is a fortress. Similar type residences have been built by WORTMAN's principal lieutenants. WORTMAN appears to spend virtually all of his waking day in the "Moat". When he needs to consult with one or more of his hoodlums he makes a telephone call to the Paddock Lounge in East St. Louis, which is one of his establishments and the prior location of his headquarters operation.

The Paddock Lounge is a combination bar and restaurant. A number of the members of WORTMAN's group habitually hang out at the Paddock Lounge, so that someone is always available there to carry out any instructions or locate any individual that WORTMAN may desire to see and talk to. The management of the Paddock Lounge has been in the hands of SAM MAGIN. MAGIN has been under prosecution by the Internal Revenue Bureau for tax evasion, has been convicted of perjury, has exhausted all appeals, has been denied probation, and is scheduled to go to the penitentiary within the next few days. [REDACTED]

Another key man in the WORTMAN setup is ELMER SYLVESTER DOWLING who appears to hold the position of trouble-shooter for WORTMAN and appears to be utilized to enforce instructions wherever WORTMAN is experiencing a little trouble among his group and otherwise to fulfill special and presumably highly confidential assignments for WORTMAN. DOWLING has an office in the Plaza Amusement Company in St. Louis, Missouri. The company is, of course, a WORTMAN operation although DOWLING has office space and he is not actively engaged in the operation of the Plaza Amusement Company insofar as it can be ascertained.

For the Bureau's further information, WORTMAN and DOWLING are currently under indictment for tax evasion and conspiracy to violate the Internal Revenue laws and it is anticipated their trials will commence in May, 1961.

From the above summary it will be readily observed that the key locations for Misur installations are the "Moat", the Paddock Lounge, and the office of DOWLING in St. Louis. The following recommendations are made:

WORTMAN is believed to use the telephone far more frequently than the average hoodlum and this is necessary in view of his current tendency to virtually never leave the "Moat".

It is believed that an immediate Tesur installation would be profitable and productive by supplying a great deal of more detailed information concerning his exact method of operation. I am not aware of the previous use of Tesurs in connection with top hoodlums and in the event there is any policy against such use I highly recommend that this particular situation be considered as a possible exception to any existing policy to the contrary.

The Bureau is requested to advise as to whether the Springfield Division may submit the necessary justification form requesting permission to institute Tesur installation of the "Moat".

Obviously Misur installation is highly desirable and this situation has been thoroughly surveyed. Several months ago it was hoped that WORTMAN in connection with transfer of his scene of operations from the Paddock Lounge to the "Moat" would be obliged to request additional telephone service at the "Moat".

Obviously this operation would involve considerable expense, both in money and in the use of personnel.

The Bureau is requested to consider this matter and advise the Springfield Division as to whether it will authorize the necessary detail surveys and submission of necessary justification forms in connection with the above proposed operation against the Paddock Lounge.

Plaza Amusement Company

This establishment is located in St. Louis, Missouri, and in the territory serviced by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. While it is appreciated this is within the discretion of the St. Louis Division rather than the Springfield Division, it is believed that coverage of the WORTMAN group should include the consideration of possible installation in the office of ELMER SYLVESTER DOWLING. St. Louis is requested to submit its observations to the Bureau concerning this possibility.

It is noted that previous information was developed that WORTMAN was incensed when MUELLER was apprehended in connection with this burglary since WORTMAN felt that it would "increase the heat" upon him.

WORTMAN further claimed he has "straightened out" a number of his boys and does not believe any of them would be involved in a bank burglary. WORTMAN claims his organization has had no handbook operation since passage of Federal Raging, Far Law and if "any of his boys" are doing any book making, it is without his knowledge or consent.

While at WORTMAN's residence, the vehicle of [REDACTED] a WORTMAN lieutenant in the policy racket, approached the moat and upon observing Bureau car immediately turned around and left. WORTMAN, on seeing the vehicle approach, walked quickly to the edge of the patio and asked, "Is that one of your fellows or one of mine?". WORTMAN seemed concerned about the situation. After agents left, a spot check of the moat reflected [REDACTED] vehicle parked in front of the moat.

Checker Inn gambling operations, E. Reason unknown for closing these operations, but believed possible because of Governor OTTO KERNER was scheduled to make a speech at Belleville, Ill., on the night of 2-23-61; however, according to the press on 2-22-61, KERNER did not appear because of illness.

GEORGE STOFFEY of E. ReBuairtel 2/24/61.

Enclosed herewith are four copies of a letterhead memorandum reflecting information set forth in Springfield letter to JAY G. PHILPOTT, Director, Internal Revenue, Springfield, Illinois, 12/12/60, a copy of which was enclosed with Springfield airtel to Director 2/14/61.

Also enclosed for the Bureau's attention is a newspaper clipping from the Sunday Journal, East St. Louis, Illinois, setting forth the newspaper's expose' of the same situation. For the Bureau's additional information, the Evening Journal for 2/27/61 reflected that the bingo game had been ordered closed by St. Clair County Sheriff DAN RING and St. Clair County State's Attorney JOHN M. KARNs, JR. The article indicated that RING had announced that all bingo games in the St. Clair County area were to be closed to "see what reaction we will get from the people." KARNs is quoted as saying that it had been evident for some time that several veterans, civic and church organizations were operating bingo games and that everyone realizes the technical requirements of the law in this matter, but that it had been the thinking of most people in the community, considering the relative harm to the good, to condone bingo.

KARNs also stated that a crossword quizzier contest-type puzzle which he alleged had been published regularly in the Journal would also be under scrutiny by his office since it also was a gambling operation. KARNs' emphasis in this retribution to the paper exposing the bingo operation was ridiculed by the Journal since it pointed out that they had not run a contest puzzle since December, 1959, more than 15 months ago.

Of additional interest to the Bureau, the enclosed newspaper clipping under the caption "Officials Know of Operation" sets forth an interview with State Senator JAMES O. MONROE, SR., who allegedly out of the clear blue sky admitted that he had spent a couple of hours with WORTMAN the other afternoon. Apparently this admission was not solicited and undoubtedly resulted from the fact that MONROE had been identified by a Bureau Agent on 2/23/61 when he visited the "Moat" as set forth in Springfield airtel to Director 2/24/61.

Information has been developed that the ~~Southern~~ Recreation Club, also known as the ~~Southern Social Club~~, East St. Louis, Illinois, is actually a rather large bingo game being operated at 6503 St. Clair Avenue, East St. Louis, Illinois, under the auspices of VFW Post #6372 of Washington Park, Illinois. The operation was previously located at 5870 St. Clair Avenue, East St. Louis, Illinois. This bingo game has allegedly been operating since June or July, 1959, and is reportedly under the complete control and domination of members of the WORTMAN organization of the East St. Louis area. b7c

It has been alleged that the actual proceeds from the bingo games amount to as much as $5,000 per week or more, and that WORTMAN allegedly receives a percentage of the take.

The above information was furnished to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Springfield, Illinois, by letter dated 12/12/60 for such action as he might deem appropriate with regard to this operation and for consideration on the possibility that Internal Revenue laws might be violated by the bingo operation.

4 of 5 Bingo Operators

Sentences Punctuate Backgrounds

Four of the five men who represent the Wortman gang interests in the operation of a lucrative VFW-sponsored bingo game in Canteen Township, have long criminal records.

The four, who pose as "legitimate" businessmen in their advanced age, spent long years acquiring their hoodlum reputations, according to criminal records.

The four are Edward Martin "Cocky" Leonard, Sam Shanks, Eugene John "Gene" Tebeau, and Thomas Patrick O'Connor.

O'Connor, 64, of St. Louis, the oldest of the four, is credited with making the largest haul. On Sept. 10, 1930, five armed men staged a daylight robbery at the Lincoln National Bank in Lincoln, Neb. They escaped with $2½ million in cash and bonds. In October, 1930, O'Connor was arrested in East St. Louis and again in Peoria as a fugitive and subsequently released. On May, 8, 1931, he was arrested in Springfield, Ill., as a suspected bank robber, and three days later under questioning by Chicago police, was identified in the Lincoln case.

Robbed Bank Folded

O'Connor was sentenced to a 25-year term in the Nebraska

State Penitentiary on Oct. 30, 1931. He was released Sept. 10, 1941. Only a few of the bonds were recovered from the robbery, which forced the Lincoln National Bank to fold. Since his release O'Connor has been arrested many times through the nation, mostly in St. Louis.

Leonard, 60, of 824 Wenneker Dr., Clayton, Mo., who has used E. M. Ryan, E.-M. McCarty and Edward Walsh as aliases, has been arrested more than 50 times in the St. Louis area. He is an ex-member of the old St. Louis Egan and Colbeck gangs. His arrest record dates back to 1914 when he was nabbed as a juvenile delinquent. He was convicted of assault and battery Jan. 30, 1925, for assaulting a U. S. Mail custodian at Pocahontas, Ill. On March 1, 1925, he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the federal penitentiary in Leavenworth, Kan., for a 6-year term. He was released in 1929. Later in 1929 he was arrested as a suspected robber in St. Louis, and in 1930 and 1931 was acquitted of kidnaping extortion charges in Kansas City.

60-Year-term

On July 23, 1931, Leonard using the E. M. Ryan alias was sentenced to serve 60 years concurrently in the state penitentiary at Canon City, Colo. This sentence stemmed from a burglary by use of explosives charge in connection with the safe cracking of a Denver dry goods store. He was released from Canon City on Oct. 21, 1940. In 1942 Leonard listed occupation with St. Louis police as a member of the Steamfitters Union. In 1943 he was arrested for carrying burglar tools in Quincy, Ill., and in 1944 was convicted on a federal Explosive Act violation and was sentenced from Federal Court in Springfield to a 1-year term plus a $5,000 fine.

Tebeau, 57, St. Louis, has an arrest record dating back to 1917, when he was sent to the state penitentiary in Jefferson City, Mo., for two years on a grand larceny charge. Since then he has been arrested about 50 times. He was convicted again in 1937 and sentenced to 12 years in Leavenworth on a Dyer Act (auto theft) charge. He was released from Leavenworth on July 15, 1945, a few years after area gang boss Frank "Buster" Wortman was released from the same institution.

Arrested With Wortman

In the early 1930s, Tebeau was arrested in St. Louis with Edward "Ted" Wortman, Busters' brother. Tebeau's latest arrest was in 1958 when he was picked up in St. Louis as a gambling suspect. He is close to Wortman, serving recently as the night manager of the Paddock Lounge, a Wortman gang meeting place in East St. Louis.

Tebeau is the "bag man"—the man who takes the money for the night's play at the bingo game, and leaves with the "take" in a black, cloth covered, briefcase each night. He makes daily trips to report to Wortman at his moated headquarters in a rural area near Collinsville.

Shanks, 55, of Ferguson, Mo., was sentenced in 1924 to the reformatory in Booneville, Mo., for 17 months on a robbery charge. In 1925 he went back to the same institution for a 5-year term on an attempted robbery charge. In 1930 he was sentenced to the Illinois Penitentiary at Menard from 1 to 20 years for auto theft. In 1939 he was arrested several times in California. In 1940 he began a one-year to life sentence at the Folsom State Prison in California for robbery. He was paroled in 1944.

Since 1944, Shanks has confined his activities to the St. Louis area, with a record of pickups on holdups, armed robbery, auto theft, and rape cases.

Wortman Aides Operate Bingo

By Charles O. Stewart
Of the Journal

A tie between the Frank "Buster" Wortman gang and the large-scale bingo game backed by Washington Park Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6372 in Can-teen Township has been established.

The Wortman gang, area representative for a Chicago-controlled nationwide crime syndicate, directs the bingo at 6503 St. Clair Ave., through five associates. Four of these hoodlums have mile-long criminal records which include arrests for almost every known crime, ranging from rape suspect to conviction for a $2½ million theft from a Lincoln, Neb., bank.

Thursday night when checked the game was booming with over 500 women and a sprinkling of men at the tables. There were two buses and 110 automobiles in the parking lot surrounding the big corrugated iron building. The crowd was disappointed Thursday. No one hit the $1,300 jackpot, which will be increased to guarantee an equally large crowd for today's game.

On Duty Thursday

The five Wortman representatives on duty Thursday, were:

Edward Martin "Cocky" Leonard, 60, ex-member of the old St. Louis Egan and Colbeck gangs and a convicted burglar; Sam Shanks, 35, a convicted robber; Eugene John "Gene" Tebeau, 57, former night manager of Wortman's Paddock Lounge in East St. Louis and a convicted auto thief; Thomas Patrick O'Connor, 64, convicted for the Lincoln bank job; Albert "Al" Danni, about 55, former operator of a bingo game in Collinsville Park, Collinsville, with no criminal record. All but Danni live in the St. Louis area.

Authorities at the VFW Post Home, located at 6113 Forest Blvd., disclaim knowledge of hoodlum connections with the bingo, which attracts hundreds on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays.

"We pay no attention to whom they hire, or what goes on out there. Our only interest is in our 20 per cent monthly cut, which amounts to $1,000 per month for us," VFW officials have said.

This statement was made by ex-Commander Edgar Hill, after the game was started in July, 1959, in the old Southern Inn, 5870 St. Clair Ave. Since then, the game has mushroomed to the point where expanded quarters were needed. Late last year, the operation was moved to the new location at 6503 St. Clair Ave.

Hill, now a member of the Post's board of trustees, has been succeeded as post commander by Harold Willard. Hill said he headed the post when the first overture was made to get the VFW for a sponsor.

"I originally was contacted by Al Danni of Collinsville with the 20 per cent offer if our Post would sponsor the game.

"I thought it was a fair offer and we needed the cash at the time. The proposition later was approved by the post membership, and we have been receiving our monthly cut ever since."

Records show that Al Danni has been arrested several times by Madison County officials for the operation of a huge bingo game, which he operated in Collinsville. The move for a St. Clair County sponsor came after the "heat" was applied in Madison County.

Reliable sources report the Wortman gang was swift to act after the "door was closed" on Danni in Madison County. The gang contacted Danni with offers of a "cut" of the game if he would serve as a "contact" and supply his idle equipment. Danni agreed, contacted the VFW, and set up the operation. Now, he is one of the overseers on duty each night.

Use of the VFW as a "front" has kept county officials from clamping down on the St. Clair County operation. Sheriff Dan Ring says he will allow bingo games to be operated by non-profit organizations.

Sheriff Ring is on record saying he has talked with the operators but could not establish any hoodlum connection.

Post officials admit the five men, since identified as Wortman associates, keep the nightly records; from these "prepared" records comes the 20 per cent cut.

Uniformed Parking Attendant

The operation Thursday night was a reminder of periods when area race tracks are open. A uniformed, red flashlight-swinging Canteen Township man directed the heavy flow of traffic crossing St. Clair Avenue before and after the game. His tan station wagon with red flasher light operating, was parked near the gate entrance.

In July, 1959, when the bingo was checked, a man identifying himself as "Edward Walsh" of Edwardsville, said he was one of the operators of the game. He admitted that he has been associated with bingo operations in the area for many years, and pointed to the number of VFW members who are employed at the game.

Thursday night, this same man—known to the bingo crowd as Mr. Walsh—was asked if "you aren't also known as 'Cocky' Leonard."

"Mr. Walsh" strongly denied the reference, commenting that anyone who said differently was a liar.

However, after the game folded Thursday at 11:30 p. m. "Mr. Walsh" came out of the building with four other people, and got behind the steering wheel of an Oldsmobile sedan bearing Missouri license number H55-900. The licenses were issued to an Edward Leonard of 824 Weneker, Dr., Clayton, Mo.

Tebeau, driving a Ford sedan bearing Missouri license BB-5892, left the bingo Thursday night, and was checked 15 minutes later at the Paddock Lounge, 429 St. Louis Ave., East St. Louis.

It is estimated the bingo grosses $5,000 each night, or $15,000 weekly.

"Mr. Walsh" said Post Commander Willard "stops by each night for a financial report."

Think Again, Mr. Karns!

THE reaction of St. Clair County might be too much to ask of State's Atty. John M. Karns Canteen Township Supervisor Jr. to the exposure of a Canteen Wetzel Harness, up for re-election this year. Mr. Harness, both Township bingo game as a gangster operation is not satisfactory, as a township supervisor and at Mr. Karns' statement that he is one time as chairman of the "aware of the situation" and is County Board of Supervisors, has "confident" that situation will be spoken out against "sin". But the corrected in the future only emphasizes the seriousness of a strip-tease joints and the Buster Wortman gambling operations in breakdown in law enforcement. his township have not been

If Mr. Karns thinks, and we stopped by Mr. Harness. suspect that he does, that the Bingo ceases to be the harmless Federal Government will and device for charity fund-raising, should do his work for him, he is as it is described by so-called thinking in the wrong way. The charity fund-raisers, when gangsters participate. Such an operation poses a grave threat to the people of St. Clair County elected him state's attorney last fall for the specific purpose of protecting them against law violators. This category includes Frank "Buster" Wortman, the five men who operate the bingo game for Wortman, and Washington Park VFW Post 6372 as the "sponsor" of that game.

Illinois law clearly states that bingo is illegal. That law must be enforced by state's attorneys as well as by the Illinois governor who is on record with a pledge that gambling shall not be tolerated during his administration. That law, too, ought to be enforced by sheriffs. This might be too much to ask of St. Clair County Sheriff Dan Ring who also is on record with a policy to permit bingo games. This also

'Will Be Stopped'

Vets Council Reacts

An end to the VFW-sponsored bingo game in St. Clair County virtually was assured Saturday by Claude Shaw, commander of the Allied Veterans Council of East St. Louis.

Informed of the criminal backgrounds of a five-man combine, which represents the interests of the Frank "Buster" Wortman gang at the bingo game, located at 6503 St. Clair Ave., Shaw said:

"I'll guarantee you that such an operation will be stopped. By this I mean there certainly will be no more sponsorship from a veteran's organization, so long as such characters are connected with the game.

"The Allied Veterans Council represents all veteran organizations in the East St. Louis area. On such matters as this we call representatives from the various organizations to a meeting, bring in the commander of the post in question and his five officers, and bluntly point the violation to them.

"If the officers of the organization in question fail to halt such an operation, the matter is taken to the state commander, in this instance Richard Depper of Caseyville, commander of the Illinois VFW. The council gets the matter stopped that way, if other efforts fail.

"The state commander has to act, because the VFW bylaws clearly state that the organization will have nothing to do in any way with anyone with a criminal record.

"Personally, I think if this is going on, it should be stopped, and stopped fast. I have no time for bingo, and from what you tell me, I think there should be some interest from other officials in St. Clair County, not just officials of veterans organizations.

"This same type of situation operated in Caseyville, and the council had that stopped in short order. I certainly thank you for calling this to my attention."

Officials Know Of Operation

Official reaction to reports of a blue sky, said: "I spent a couple of hours with Buster Wortman the other afternoon. A friend of mine in St. Clair County varied Saturday.

The most startling disclosure was made by State Sen. James O. Monroe Sr., who, out of a clear Monroe also publishes the Collinsville Herald.

State's Atty. John M. Karns Jr. said Saturday that "I am aware of the situation, but at this time I don't want to make a premature statement. However, I am confident that steps will be taken to clean up the situation in the not too distant future."

Canteen Township Supervisor Wetzel G. Harness said, "It is well known that a bingo game operation is going on at the St. Clair Avenue location."

Harness said he knew of no connection between the bingo and "outside" associates.

"I have no policing powers and if an investigation into the operation is in order, it will have to come from the policing bodies, such as the sheriff's department."

Sheriff Daniel Ring could not be reached Saturday for comment.

Sen. Monroe was contacted for comment on a resolution introduced in the House last week proposing to remove the state constitution's ban on lotteries—considered a bar to bingo.

The Illinois Council of Churches is opposed to legalized bingo, and Gov. Otto Kerner said he would veto the measure.

On the bingo proposal, Sen. Monroe said: "I'm not strong one way or the other. Personally, I think bingo is nice entertainment; if the proceeds go to a private organization or to charity, I'm for it. I certainly wouldn't want to make it the basis of a state tax, however. I say if the people want to play bingo, let them play. It's better for them to throw their money away on bingo than at the race tracks. I can't see anything wrong with bingo."

State Sen. James Gray (D-East St. Louis) said: "I'm not going to worry about the bingo proposal. I don't think it ever will pass the House, so the Senate won't have to deal with it. The governor has said he would veto such a move. However, as things stand now, and generally speaking, I am inclined to be against the proposal."

State Rep. Otis Miller Jr. (D-Bellefonte) said: "I'm opposed to any form of legalized gambling. However, I would need more time to study the proposed bingo legislation. I would like to have bingo clarified. As it stands now, someone must be giving permission for the bingo operations, and this is bad. If church, civic and fraternal organizations want to operate bingos or the like to make a profit, something should be done to keep them from going through these people to get permission. I'd like to see this clarified one way or the other. As it stands I don't know how I would vote on the proposal."

State Rep. Frank Holten (D-East St. Louis) and State Rep. Alan J. Dixon (D-Bellefonte) could not be reached Saturday for comment.

PURPOSE

To recommend that authority be granted for the installation of a microphone surveillance on the subject who is one of the Bureau's primary targets for prosecution.

DETAILS

Frank Leonard Wortman, together with his brother, Elmer, and Edward Dowling of St. Louis, is in charge of racketeering activities in the East St. Louis, Illinois, and St. Louis, Missouri, areas.

[REDACTED] He has high-level political contacts through which he operates. He is one of the hoodlum targets selected by the Bureau for top-level priority to develop a possible violation. Wortman is currently under indictment on charges of evading the payment of Federal income tax and his trial is scheduled for the immediate future.

Wortman conducts his racketeering activities from his residence known as "The Moat," which property is entirely surrounded by water except for one bridgeway. His hoodlums hang out at the Paddock Lounge, 429 St. Louis Ave., East St. Louis, Illinois. When he desires action he calls the Paddock Lounge and makes arrangements for his orders to be carried out. While his hoodlum associates loiter at the Lounge, it is known that they frequently discuss Wortman's racketeering operations.

East St. Louis "Journal" on March 6, 1961 issue carried an article on front page to the effect that St. Clair County Sheriff's Office had conducted a raid about noon, March 6, 1961, on the policy operation at Brooklyn, Illinois, operated by the WORTMAN organization. The article indicated that the premises were unoccupied at the time of the raid; however, some equipment apparently used in the policy operation was seized.

Date February 28, 1961

FRANK LEONARD WORTMAN, RFD, Collinsville, Illinois, stated during conversation with him on the patio in front of the moated residence at 11:20 - 11:45 AM February 17, 1961 that he knew [redacted] by sight. WORTMAN said [redacted] occasionally ate at the Paddock Lounge in East St. Louis in the past but did not hang out at this location as far as he, WORTMAN, knew. WORTMAN said [redacted] was never employed by him, WORTMAN, and was not on WORTMAN's payroll at any time in the past or presently. WORTMAN said he was very surprised when he read in the newspaper about [redacted]

[redacted] because he, WORTMAN, [redacted]

WORTMAN was asked if there was a close association between [redacted] and MELVIN BECKMAN and "STORMY" HARVILL. WORTMAN replied that he did not know whether there was any association between these individuals and as far as he knew they might be acquainted but were not close friends. WORTMAN was asked if BECKMAN or HARVILL might have been with [redacted]

WORTMAN replied that "my fellows do not do those kind of things". WORTMAN pointed out that his instructions are that any of his "fellows" are not to be involved in any type of strong armed crimes, including burglaries, robberies and that type of "thing". WORTMAN said if he finds that any of his "fellows" are involved in any type of strong armed jobs, they are put out of his organization. WORTMAN said he will not allow that type of "rough stuff". WORTMAN said he has "straightened out a number of fellows". When asked what he meant by this, WORTMAN said that a number of the individuals in his organization have been involved in "rough stuff" in the past but that this has all been in years past. It was pointed out to WORTMAN that BECKMAN is one of WORTMAN's men and that BECKMAN was released as a result of a burglary charge from the Missouri prison in 1960. WORTMAN said nothing concerning this but merely said that most of his fellows were involved in "rough stuff" years ago.

On 2/17/61 at RFD, Collinsville, Ill. File # ST 97-1761

by SAs [redacted] Date dictated 2/23/61

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

SI 91-1761

WORTMAN said his "fellows" do not have to pull any type burglaries and "that sort of thing" because they are all making a good living with what they are doing. WORTMAN refused to acknowledge or explain what he meant by "what they are doing". WORTMAN said again if he ever heard of any of his "fellows" doing any rough stuff, he would getrid of them immediately.

WORTMAN was asked whether he knew [redacted] and to which WORTMAN replied that he knew who [redacted] was but that [redacted] was never employed by WORTMAN or on WORTMAN's payroll. He said he did not know if there was any association between [redacted] WORTMAN said as far as he knew, [redacted] and further that "some of my boys" have helped [redacted] in the past to get a job [redacted] and that "some of the boys" helped [redacted]

WORTMAN was asked who was running the Paddock Lounge at the present time and he replied that as far as he knew, [redacted] was running the place. WORTMAN said that in the past everything to do at the Paddock was taken care of by SAM MAGIN, as he was the boss. WORTMAN voluntarily stated that "we are taking good care of Magin". He refused to explain what he meant by this and it was observed to WORTMAN that it would certainly appear that he, WORTMAN, owed it to MAGIN. WORTMAN made no comment to this.

WORTMAN was asked if [redacted] was not employed by him, WORTMAN, in handling handbook gambling operations in the past. WORTMAN replied that he and "his boys" have not operated any handbook or bookie operations since the Federal Wagering Tax Law went into affect. WORTMAN said, of course, if some of "his boys" did operate handbooks, they were doing it without the okay of WORTMAN. WORTMAN was asked specifically about "bookie" operations at the East St. Louis race tracks in the recent past by some of "his men". WORTMAN replied that taking bets at the race track was not against the Federal Wagering Tax Law. WORTMAN was asked specifically about the operations of GORDON FOSTER and ROBERT SHEER, who have been convicted of Federal violations in connection with handbook operations and wagering tax violation. WORTMAN replied that FOSTER was not guilty of running a handbook but that FOSTER has in the past has always been running "a service line" and that any actual handbook operations were done by SHEER. WORTMAN said that FOSTER is serving his penitentiary time now because of what SHEER did, not what FOSTER did. WORTMAN further stated that after FOSTER's case was reversed by this Court of Appeals, "they" could have beat the case if they had gone to trial again but because of FOSTER's family, it was decided that he would take a plea of guilty on a misdemeanor charge and serve whatever sentence he received.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date February 28, 1961

On February 17, 1961 SAs [REDACTED] b7c
[REDACTED] at approximately 11:20 to 11:45 AM interviewed
FRANK LEONARD WORTMAN on the patio in front of WORTMAN's moated residence, RFD, Collinsville, Illinois. It was observed, on reaching this residence, that the door immediately in front of the drive approaching the house beneath the doorbell had a small name card slot and on the card inside of the slot was printed the name JOHN J. JONES.

During interview with WORTMAN, at approximately 11:55AM an automobile drove on the road through a field leading to the moat residence and as it was approaching the residence, it immediately turned around and started driving away from the moat. WORTMAN made the comment "Is that some of your fellows or some of mine?" He walked rapidly to the edge of the patio to get a good view of the automobile immediately on seeing it.
From observation by SA [REDACTED] it was determined this was a 1961 four-door black Cadillac with Missouri license, which vehicle is known to SA [REDACTED] having been in the possession of and having been driven on numerous occasions in the recent past by [REDACTED] b7c

After leaving the moat residence, SAs [REDACTED] drove back by the moat residence at approximately 12:00 noon,
February 17, 1961 at which time this same 1961 black four-door Cadillac was observed parked on the drive directly in front of the moat residence.

Oil Leases

Louisville Division advised on January 25, 1961, that the records of the County Court Clerks were checked at the following locations by SA [REDACTED] with negative results as to any oil lease that could be associated with the subjects of this case. No lease was found that was called the [REDACTED] Lease or the [REDACTED] Lease in any of the following counties: b7c

Allen County, 11/28/60
Barren County, 11/28/60
Butler County, 1/13/61
Clinton County, 11/29/60 and 1/19/61
Cumberland County, 11/29/60 and 1/19/61
Edmonson County, 1/13/61
Hart County, 1/13/61
Logan County, 12/7/60
Metcalf County, 1/16/61
Monroe County, 1/19/61
Russell County, 1/10/61
Simpson County, 11/29/60
Warren County, 1/16/61 b7c

On January 9, 1961, the records of the Green County Court Clerk were searched and 15 leases were located that had the name [REDACTED] associated therewith. [REDACTED] b7c b7D

A search of the Taylor County Records, Campbells-ville, Kentucky, on January 9, 1961, showed that two leases were referred to as the [REDACTED] Lease; however, [REDACTED] advised on January 18, 1961, that WORTMAN or DOWLING had no recorded connections or interest therein.

SI 92-112

By letter dated February 7, 1961, the Louisville Division advised the following investigation was conducted by SA [REDACTED] on January 10, 1961:

A review of the lease records maintained in the County Court Clerk's Office was made through the cooperation of [REDACTED]. The lease index book was checked and the name [REDACTED] was not listed in the lease index book under either lessee or lessor.

The lease index book did not contain the names of FRANK LEONARD WORTMAN or EDWARD WORTMAN, JR., as either a lessee or lessor.

The name ELMER SYLVESTER DOWLING did not appear in the lease index book either as a lessee or a lessor.

The following entries were found in the Christian County Lease Book for people with the last name of [REDACTED] who were lessees. It cannot be determined if any of these leases are identical with the [REDACTED] Lease" referred to in referenced letter, and there is no way in the Louisville file of determining whether these leases are identical with referenced lease from the information set forth in referenced letter.

As previously set out, SAM MAGIN began serving his three year perjury sentence February 3, 1961 and was removed to Terre Haute Federal Prison.

The case of GEORGE STOFFEY, a former WORTMAN organization handbook operator, has been set for retrial in United States District Court March 20, 1961. STOFFEY was previously convicted for wagering stamp violation in United States District Court, East St. Louis, and his case was reversed by the Circuit Court of Appeals.

Re: DISMAS HOUSE

The United Artists movie "Hoodlum Priest" is scheduled for a world premier in St. Louis, Missouri February 28, 1961. This movie is based on the operations of the home for ex-convicts organized and controlled by Father CHARLES DISMAS CLARK, a Catholic priest in St. Louis, Missouri. One of the principal benefactors of this organization has been MORRIS SHENKER, prominent criminal lawyer of St. Louis who has been WORTMAN's principal attorney and legal advisor for years.

164 Three Assistant Attorney Generals from the Department, Washington, D.C., now in St. Louis, actively preparing WORTMAN ET AL case for trial, St. Louis, set for 5-15-61. These attorneys are JOHN SCHAUER, PAUL KOMIVEZ, and WILLIARD MC BRIDE.

Recent issue daily racing form carries story, dateline Hialeah, Florida, 3-2-61, stating owner, MARGIE LOU MINES, Collinsville, Illinois, was suspended 3-2-61 by Hialeah Board of Stewards, who further recommended to Florida Racing Commission her license be revoked for falsification of owner's license, application, and other charges. Article reflects Mrs. MINES is daughter of EDWARD WORTMAN and that WORTMAN has interest in the race horses and direction of the stable; further, that several other states have permitted WORTMAN to withdraw applications for an owner's license and if he applied in Florida, they would not allow him a license. Springfield has information that similar action taken by California Racing Board and under consideration by Illinois Board.

RE FRANK LEONARD WORTMAN, aka
AR

Re Buairtel to New York, 2-1-61, captioned "CRIMINAL INTELLIGENCE PROGRAM"

FRANK LEONARD WORTMAN is not presently the subject of a substantive Bureau case. He was indicted on January 11, 1960, by the Federal Grand Jury, Eastern District of Illinois, East St. Louis, for violation of laws under the jurisdiction of the Internal Revenue Service involving income tax violations. Indicted with him were close associates ELMER SYLVESTER DOWLING, EDWARD "TED" WORTMAN, Jr., a brother to FRANK WORTMAN, GREGORY "RED" MOORE, SAM MAGIN, and GEORGE FRANK. WORTMAN is presently free on $30,000 bond. It is noted that the indictment charges both the substantive count of evasion of income taxes and charges all of the above with a count of conspiracy. The substantive counts in the indictment have been separated by court order and each of the defendants is to be tried in the district wherein he lives making some of the prosecutions to be tried in the Southern District of Illinois, some in the Eastern District of Illinois, and some in the Federal District covering St. Louis, Missouri. All defendants under the conspiracy count are to be tried in the Eastern District of Illinois. This trial was recently postponed until May, 1961, at the request of the government in view of the recent resignation of the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Illinois.

In this regard it is noted that former USA RAEMER had made every effort with the Department to be allowed to try this case personally. It is known that the Department has reviewed the voluminous reports submitted by Internal Revenue Service. Further, that a Special Assistant Attorney General has been in East St. Louis, Illinois, over the past several years for extended periods for assistance in drawing indictments, coordinating the investigation, and consultation. The USA is recently advised that this case will probably be tried by two Special Assistant Attorneys General sent from Washington, however, there is no verification of this. It is noted that in the opinion of this office this would be extremely desirable inasmuch as a new USA is to be appointed sometime in the near future to fill the vacancy left by RAEMER. It is not believed that the extensive preparation for prosecution could be adequately made by a new appointee.

It is further noted that local rumors indicate that one individual under consideration for the appointment as USA is RAY FOREMAN of Danville, Illinois, who formerly was an Assistant USA. Recently information has been developed that FOREMAN has practiced law in Danville, Illinois, since about 1953, and was retained as attorney for SAM MAGIN, attop WORTMAN lieutenant, when MAGIN was indicted in 1959 for perjury as a result of MAGIN's appearance before the Federal Grand Jury, Eastern District of Illinois, which Grand Jury was investigating FRANK WORTMAN and his associates and their operations. FOREMAN stepped out of the actual trial of MAGIN because of substantial differences between himself and the USA's office, whereby FOREMAN felt he should appear as a witness in the MAGIN trial as well as attorney for the defense. The USDJ would not agree to this and, therefore, FOREMAN withdrew as attorney but apparently remained in the picture as an advisor and consultant to MAGIN and WORTMAN.

MAGIN has been convicted and all appeals exhausted and is now serving a three-year penitentiary sentence. Springfield, of course, has no information indicating that FOREMAN actually will be appointed to the USA's office in the Eastern District of Illinois.

2. The Springfield Office believes that the most vulnerable area for establishing a Bureau violation would be in the field of labor violations such as LMRA or Anti-racketeering and in connection with possible government contracts the development of a FAG, Bribery, or Conspiracy case; bribery and conspiracy may be a possibility in connection with WORTMAN's forthcoming trial. The information developed with regard to possible violations in this field has been, throughout the top hoodlum investigation, vague and speculative.

Further, this office is actively engaged at the present time in the development of confidential investigative techniques which will, it is believed, give far more accurate information concerning possible Bureau violations than that previously received from sources.

It is felt that a careful development of the informant and the establishment of such techniques may lead to possible violations within the Bureau's jurisdiction at a future date.

3. As indicated in #1 above, the greatest possible area for prosecution immediately is with regard to the outstanding indictment charging income tax violations. It is felt that the Internal Revenue Service could also possibly develop Federal Wagering Stamp violations since WORTMAN's main interior, but remains in the state of affairs, however, that he is divorced almost completely from the actual running of any of the gambling establishments. A number of individuals on the lower echelon of the NORTMAN organization has, in the recent past, been convicted of violating the same violations which violations were established as a result of the over-all NORTMAN investigation by the Internal Revenue Service.

The Springfield Office is conducting the top hoodlum investigation with an intensified effort to develop all possibilities of a violation within the Bureau's jurisdiction. In the event any such violation or allegation thereof is developed the Bureau will be promptly advised and all possible efforts made to develop the case to a prosecutable state.

The following is being furnished relative to possible violations, <sup>not</sup> within the Bureau's jurisdiction:

The FRANK LEONARD WORTMAN organization for years has operated three basic phases of gambling in St. Clair County, Illinois, without any apparent restraints, investigations, raids, or other deterrents by local authorities. These phases include a policy racket operation at 204 Madison Street, Lovejoy, Illinois, the Checker Inn dice gambling establishment at 4500 Old St. Clair Avenue, and the bingo operation at 6503 St. Clair Avenue. All of these locations are on the outskirts of East St. Louis, Illinois, in St. Clair County. The Illinois State Police in past years has occasionally raided the dice gambling establishment

 b7D

The period during which the ISP did conduct raids considerably hampered the WORTMAN operations and at one time caused them to almost virtually shut down their gambling activities. Since these raids have been discontinued the operations are again operating almost openly

 b7D

Since the new State's Attorney for St. Clair County, JOHN MARSHALL KARNS, Jr., has taken office there has been ample evidence indicating that he is anticipating no action against the gambling interests of the WORTMAN organization

A reception is to be held after the showing of the movie at the Chase Hotel in St. Louis which is owned by the family of the wife of MORRIS SHENKER, prominent criminal attorney in East St. Louis. SHENKER has been WORTMAN's advisor for years and is considered WORTMAN's principal legal advisor and attorney. SHENKER has been one of the principal supporters, benefactors, and fund raisers for the Dismas House in St. Louis, a home for ex-convicts promoted by Catholic priest Father DISMAS CLARK. Agents of the Belleville RA, on checking the moat [REDACTED] b7D
[REDACTED] determined that leaving the moat at about 4:00 PM was a Buick automobile; a short distance from the moat this vehicle stopped and agents following a distance behind the vehicle also stopped

The attitude of State Senator MONROE concerning the Director is not new. ## Memorandum

TO : Mr. Parsons APR

DATE: 3/6/61

FROM : C. A. Evans *✓*JUNE *b7c*SUBJECT: FRANK LEONARD WORTMAN
ANTI-RACKETEERING *11-1*PURPOSE

To recommend that authority be granted for the installation of additional microphone coverage on the subject who is a prominent notorious midwest hoodlum and one of the Bureau's primary targets for prosecution.

DETAILS

Frank Leonard Wortman, his brother Elmer, and Edward Dowling dominate racketeering in Southern Illinois and St. Louis, Missouri. Wortman has close ties with the underworld gang which is in control in the Chicago area. He cultivates political contacts to promote his racketeering interest and has been selected as one of the Bureau's top priority subjects for development of a case for possible prosecution. He is now under indictment in a Federal income tax case with his trial scheduled for May, 1961.

Wortman is extremely security conscious. He conducts all of his racketeering activities from his home known as "The Moat," which property is entirely surrounded by water except for one bridgeway which is the only means of access. Wortman issues orders from his home to his hoodlums who hang out at the Paddock Lounge, 429 St. Louis Ave., East St. Louis, Illinois. The Springfield Office feels that high-level intelligence information on Wortman, his associates and other underworld outfits can be secured by installing microphone coverage in the Wortman home. Springfield has been authorized to install a microphone at the Paddock Lounge and through additional coverage at "The Moat" it is believed that all phases of Wortman's activities will be covered.

Springfield proposes a method of installation which involves selecting a period when Wortman and his family are absent from their residence for a period of at least two days. This may occur while Wortman is on vacation which he usually spends in Michigan.

For info of Lab, the distance involved is approximately one mile and viewing conditions are normal under existing daily weather conditions. Viewing area is from a farm barn across open fields with no obstructions. On occasion heat or vapor waves coming from the open fields cause some interference, particularly after a rain. Questar telescope appears to be slightly under-powered and on occasions license numbers can be determined but only for a split second when all conditions are exactly favorable; Questar telescope does not enable clear view of facial features of individuals because of lack of power of scope. It is possible that a 100X telescope may be suitable.

The Laboratory is requested to expedite furnishing adequate equipment directly to Belleville RA, 220 N. Illinois St., Belleville, Ill.
